

Dr Beata Froehlich, LLM
Dean of Marbella International University Centre

Beata is a Dean of Marbella International University Center. She serves as a Model leader of LLM programme (International, Foreign and Comparative Law) at Centro de Estudios Garrigues in Madrid with the collaboration of Fordham Law School. She was a visiting scholar at Columbia Law School, where Professor Bermann was serving as her official sponsor. She was also a postdoctoral fellow at McGill University (Canada) under the supervision of Professor Andrea Bjorklund. Beata obtained my PhD and LL.M. from Vilnius University. She was awarded an LL.M. in Commercial Law from University College London (UCL). Beata has participated in an exchange programs at Vrije Universiteit in Brussels where she studied EU and International Law. Beata has been awarded a Postgraduate Diploma in EU Competition Law from King's College, London University, and a Practice Diploma in International Joint Ventures from College of Law of England and Wales. Beata was the recipient of the Swiss Arbitration Academy yearly Grant 2016, Zurich, Switzerland. She has been awarded the Certificate of Advanced Studies in Arbitration of the Universities of Lucerne, together with the University of Neuchâtel as well as the Swiss Arbitration Academy (SAA) and the Arbitration Practitioner (ArbP) diploma issued by the SAA. Beata was a Regional Representative for YIAG 2016/2019. She was a participant (speaker) of Post-Doctoral School 2016 at Max Planck Institute Luxembourg. In 2013 Beata was awarded a certificate and scholarship by The International Academy for Arbitration Law Paris, France. She has also been nominated as an Ambassador to the Academy for Arbitration Law (Paris, France). Beata is a fully qualified lawyer registered with the Lithuanian Bar Association. She was a result oriented associate in the Dispute Resolution practice group in Motieka&Audzevičius in the Baltics. Working languages: English, Russian, Polish, Spanish, and Lithuanian. She is also continuing to write articles on issues arising in international commercial and investment arbitration.