

Saliya Pieris, President's Counsel is the President of the Bar Association of Sri Lanka.

He heads his Law Chambers in Sri Lanka practicing in the areas of Criminal law, Public law and Fundamental Rights in the Appellate and Original Courts. From February 2018 to September 2020 he functioned as the first Chairman of the Office on Missing Persons, a new institution established as part of Sri Lanka's reconciliation mechanism. Between October 2015 to March 2018 he was a Member of the Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka.

He was Deputy President of the Bar Association of Sri Lanka from 2015 to 2017. Has been an advocate for the strengthening of human rights, a strong and independent Bar in Sri Lanka and consistently stood for the Rule of Law and the Independence of the judiciary.

He is a lecturer in law and has contributed many papers and articles on law and politics.

He holds a Masters Degree in International Business Law from the University of London. He is an Eisenhower Fellow.