

2ND LAWASIA Human Rights Conference

Rediscovering and Reshaping Human Rights in a Post Pandemic World

Conference Information

Date:

Saturday 9 October 2021

Platform:

Zoom

Conference website

Visit our website to find out more about:

- Program overview
- Speakers and moderators
- Registration details

Cost: Complimentary and open to all

Time:

13:00 - 20:20 (Sydney/Canberra)

11:00 - 18:20 (Tokyo/Seoul)

10:00 - 17:20 (Hong Kong/Singapore/KL/Beijing/Taipei)

09:00 - 16:20 (Hanoi/Phnom Penh/Bangkok/Vientiane)

07:30 - 14:50 (Delhi/Colombo)

03:00 - 10:20 (London)

LEARN MORE & REGISTER NOW

Contact us

LAWASIA Secretariat

Phone: +61 2 9926 0165

Email: lawasia@lawasia.asn.au

CONNECT WITH US!

www.lawasia.asn.au

Rediscovering and Reshaping Human Rights in a Post Pandemic World

A joint initiative between LAWASIA and the Korean Bar Association

LAWASIA's Human Rights Committee, in conjunction with the Korean Bar Association, is pleased to invite the participation of members and legal professionals at the 2nd LAWASIA Human Rights Conference to be held online in a virtual format on 9 October 2021.

This is the second LAWASIA Human Rights Conference, providing a unique opportunity for lawyers and associated professional members to exchange insights and expertise on topics of significant importance to all.

Join our panels of legal experts and eminent speakers representing 17 jurisdictions across Asia and the Pacific Region, as they explore a broad range of human rights issues of relevance to the region in this one day event, including:

- Human Rights and COVID-19 in the Asia-Pacific Region
- Human Rights Crisis in Myanmar
- Racial Discrimination in the Era of COVID-19
- Trends in freedom of expression regulations in the Asia-Pacific Region
- Emerging norms in climate change litigation
- Labour rights in a gig economy
- Gender Equality and Human Rights, towards Diversity and Inclusiveness

Brought to you by:

KOREAN BAR ASSOCIATION

With support from:

