

Sugandha Yadav is a researcher and advocate currently serving as the Columbia Law School Global Public Service Fellow with the Strategic Litigation Unit and Climate Justice Team at Amnesty International. Sugandha has advised civil society partners in India, Yemen, and South Africa on issues of climate justice, human rights and environment law. Recently she supported the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of human rights in the context of climate change. Sugandha has studied political science and law at Delhi University, Durham University, and Columbia Law School.

Sugandha has been recognized with the British Council Alumni Award for Social Action and a nomination to the IUCN World Commission on Environment Law. At LAWASIA, Sugandha has supported the Environmental Law Committee and the Human Rights Committee.